

Voskanyan Sergey

PhD, Deputy Director General for surgery - Head of the Center for Surgery and Transplantology of the State Research Center Burnazyan FMBC of the FMBA of Russia, corresponding member of the Russian Academy of the Medical and Technological Sciences, Head of Department of Surgery with course of Oncology of Institute with a course of vocational postgraduate education of State Research Center Burnazyan FMBC of the FMBA of Russia, Deputy Editor of the international journal "Hepatogastroenterology", editorial board member of the journal "Genes and Cells", a member of the executive committee of the International Association of Surgeons, Gastroenterologists and Oncologists (IASGO), Excellent Public Health.

In 1999 graduated from the Stavropol State Medical Academy. In 2000 defended PhD thesis: "Duodenal enzymecorrection of pancreatic secretion - theoretical and applied aspects", and in 2013 defended doctoral dissertation: "The morphological and functional organization of the pancreas and the clinical and experimental aspects of the acute postoperative pancreatitis".

Author of more than 500 publications, 61 inventions and patents of the Russian Federation and scientific discovery.

Author and co-author of 6 books and manuals for physicians, a number of manuals and guidelines for physicians.

Specialization and research interests: Surgery, Oncology, HPB surgery, Clinical Liver Transplantation, Laparoscopic Surgery, Gastroenterology.